

St. Johnsbury Caledonian.

COMMENCED AUG. 8, 1837.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1908.

VOL. LXXII—NO. 3713.

THE BERRY-BALL Dry Goods Company.

New Shoes for Fall and Winter.

Our lines are now complete in all the leading styles for Men, Women and Children.

SOROSIS SHOES

Ladies' Shoes in all styles made up in Vici Kid, Patent Colt and Velour Calf by the Sorosis. Prices 3.50 to $4.00.

Other makes in good style shoes. Prices 1.50 and $3.00.

MEN'S SHOES. We carry a full assortment of the Always-Wears-Well shoes. Also many other cheaper lines.
Prices 1.50 to $5.00.

CHILDREN'S and MISSES' SHOES. Prices 50c to $2.00.

EDUCATOR SHOE

Let the child wiggle his toes. That's the test of whether the shoe fits. The delicate toe joints are the most easily distorted in the whole body, and the continuous pressure of a poorly fitting shoe means permanent deformity. "Educator" shoes fit snugly at the heel and instep, but leave the toes free to grow as they should!

Thursday's Specials.

WHITE PETTICOATS. We have a large number of home-made sample skirts. They were road samples and slightly mused. All beautifully trimmed with lace and embroidery. The price is less than 50 per cent off. No two alike.

150 yards All Linen Crash. Regular price 10c. Thursday 7c.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—Charles Weeks advertises elsewhere a fine lot of livestock to be sold at auction at Riverside farm Oct. 7. Mr. Weeks will spend the winter in Nebraska settling up the affairs of his brother who was killed by an insane man about a year ago.

—Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge No. 4 will observe its 38th anniversary next Tuesday. Odd Fellows and their families and members of the order and their families are invited.

—Mrs. J. W. Balch has sold her house on Main street to Dr. Hugh Miltimore of Chicago, and will give possession the first of December. Dr. Miltimore is a graduate of the medical department of the University of Vermont and has practiced in Chicago the past year. Mrs.
Miltimore was formerly Miss Cleona Tatro, the talented violinist, and will be an addition to the musical circles of the town.

—Invitations are out for a select dance at Pythian hall Friday evening.

—The N. E. O. P. will have an entertainment at their hall Saturday evening for members and their families.

—Algonquin Tribe of Red Men presented Past Great Sachem C. B. Carr with a fine regalia, Thursday night. The presentation speech was made by J. F. Mc-Carty. Lunch was served, followed by a social hour. The order is making good progress here.

—New patients at St. Johnsbury hospital are Dorothy Page of Lyndon, Glenn Lynch and Mrs. L. T. Sulham of St. Johnsbury. William Cheney, Mrs.
William Gill, Mrs. Robert Clark and Dr.
A. J. Piche have returned home.

—The much desired rain came Monday night in a steady shower that helped fill up the streams, but much more rain is needed. Before the shower there was one of the severest wind storms of the season, many dwelling houses being shaken by the force of the wind, and several large trees were blown down.

—Chamberlin Post and Relief Corps will hold a joint meeting Saturday evening in G. A. R. hall, when delegates and visitors to the National Encampment will give reports of the meetings and the journey. Members of both organizations, Sons of Veterans, and Spanish War Veterans are invited. The regular meeting of Chamberlin Corps will be held Thursday afternoon.

—The annual fall excursion to Boston comes Thursday, Oct. 8, and the round trip from St. Johnsbury is $4.85.
Tickets are good on all regular trains that day and limited to ten days.

—The management of New Music Hall have booked some strong attractions for the coming season. Their repertoire includes "Knight for a Day," "The Road to Yesterday," "The Wolf," "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Thief," "The Devil," and "Black Beauty." On election night they will have a local vaudeville entertainment and announce the returns through the evening.

—Dr. Charlotte Fairbanks has opened an office at the Athenaeum House, 24 Main street. Dr. Fairbanks is a graduate of the Woman's Medical College in Philadelphia and for the past six years has been in private practice in that city and also connected with the Woman's Hospital, the largest hospital for women in that city.

—Both railroads passing through here adopt their winter schedule next Monday and the time of the trains will be practically the same as in former years.
The night train between Quebec and New York made its last trip Saturday.

—The Interstate Company have gone out of business and their manager, Elmer Blake, has gone to the western oil fields. Their place of business above Bailey's music store will be occupied after the first of the month by L. A.
Pratt, the harness maker.

—The souvenir postal cards which C.
H. Clark, the photographer, originated, have had a wide sale the past year, over 20,000 having been sold of the one entitled "What some people think of Vermont." Since that was first issued Mr.
Clark has put several others on the market and over 10,000 of these have been sold.

At Fairbanks Village.

Miss Marjorie P. Winslow of the Fairbanks Boston House, who has been filling Miss Mabel Woodside's position during her absence at Columbus, Ohio, returned Monday to Boston.

Mrs. Oscar Larson and sister Catherine Frank went Friday to New York, where they are going to sail for Sweden.
Upon returning they will make their home in Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Joseph K. Beck returned last week from Mt. Washington.

Mrs. Randall from Wheelock spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. G. W.
Robinson.

Dan Perrigard spent a few days last week with his brother at Point St.
Charles, Montreal.

A GOLD PREVENTIVE is better than a cough remedy. Keep away the cold by warming your house with good, clean coal.

HAVE US SEND YOU COAL enough of that kind to put you through the winter. Any day now we can expect a nasty cold storm when a fire is needed to make the house comfortable. Better give us the order today so the storm won't find you with an empty coal bin and a chilly house.

RECENT DEATHS.

Paine.

Palmer E. Paine, one of the most prominent Masons in this vicinity, died at Brightlook Hospital last Wednesday evening, due to a general breaking down in health, at the age of 70 years. He was born in Montpelier, March 15, 1838.
On October 16, 1869, he was married in Montpelier to Miss Harriet A. Gilbert, who died here about 20 years ago. Until they came to St. Johnsbury to live their home had been in Montpelier, where he was employed for about six years by the Lane, Pitkin Brock Manufacturing Co., as an iron moulder; in Fair Haven, where he worked at the carpenter's trade for about six years; in East Montpelier, where they lived on a farm for two years; and later in Calais, where on account of the frail health of both Mr. and Mrs.
Paine, they resided for five years on a farm. They came here about 26 years ago and he entered the employ of E. & T.
Fairbanks & Co., as a moulder. After working there only a year he suffered one of the severest burns ever known of in the iron foundry. He was unable to work on account of it for about a year.
He then resumed the work and continued there until last November, when his health would not allow him to work longer. He never fully recovered from the severe burn which resulted in much suffering during his illness of the past few months. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Paine, three of whom died in infancy. Of those who survive Mrs. O. J. Ainsworth resides in Woodbury; Frank A., is an iron moulder in the employ of E. & T. Fairbanks & Co.; Fred L., is a time keeper at the iron foundry at the scale shops; and Mrs.
William Church resides at North Danville. There are several grandchildren and one great grandchild. He is also survived by one brother, J. Austin Paine, formerly of this place, now of East Montpelier, and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Newton of Montpelier, and Mrs. W. C. Bugbee of Calais. Mr. Paine and his brother enlisted in the army soon after the Civil War broke out, but were not accepted, and went to Harrison's Landing, where they were employed in the commissary department for some time.

He was known as one of the best read Masons in the state, having joined this organization in Montpelier 45 years ago.
He was a Past Master of Passumpsic Lodge, No. 27, Past High Priest of Haswell Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11, Past Master of Caledonia council, No. 13, a member of Palestine Commandery, No.
5, K. T., of Mizpah Lodge of Perfection, No. 5, and a 14th degree Scottish Rite Mason. He was also a member of Mt.
Sinai Temple, Nobles of Mystic Shrine.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon from the home of his son, Fred J. Paine, with whom he had lived for a number of years. Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks officiated, the service of the Masonic order being held at the grave.
There were beautiful flowers from the various Masonic bodies to which he belonged, from the shopmates, and from friends. A quartet consisting of W. B.
Atwood, J. B. Toussaint, Eugene G.
Smith, and Frank Woods sang. The bearers were L. P. Harriman, George H.
Taylor, Henry Keopka, and E. B.
Bennett.

Mr. Paine was a man who had the respect of all who knew him, was faithful in his duties, and appreciative of the tender care and kindness of his family and friends in his failing health.

Moore.

James C. Moore was born in Bradford, Dec. 17, 1846. In his earlier life he was engaged in the meat and provision business in Boston. In 1881 he came to St.
Johnsbury where he did a large hardware business for several years. Returning to Boston three years ago he bought out the stock in a grocery store, in which place he was doing business at the time of his death. He had been afflicted with rheumatism for several months, while later a serious heart trouble developed, which ended in his death at the City Hospital, Boston, Sept. 20th. Always possessed with a remarkably genial disposition, he had many friends in consequence. Besides his wife, Lizzie, who was a daughter of the late J. L. Couch, he leaves three sons: Leon of this place, Frank and Roy of Boston, also two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Jennie S.
Goodrich of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Helen P. Poole and George P. Moore of this place. The funeral was held at the home of his brother on Railroad street, Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, Rev.
A. F. Welch, his former pastor, officiating.

Lally.

At the home of her sister, Mrs. James Finagan, Mary Ann Lally passed away Saturday evening, after a long, lingering illness, but the end came suddenly, caused by paralysis. Miss Lally was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Lally, and was born in Ireland 72 years ago. She came to America about 40 years ago and shortly afterwards came to St. Johnsbury, where she made her home with her sister. She has been in poor health for a great many years and for the last two was confined to her bed.
She had a cheerful disposition, and was always very patient through all her suffering. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Aloysius church and interment was at Mt. St. Joseph cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. William Welch, John Lynch, M. C. Stenson and Dennis Cassidy. Miss Lally is survived by one brother, Patrick A. Lally, of Fitchburg, Mass., and her sister, Mrs.
Finagan.
